REF: WISHING YOU SUCCESS IN YOUR EXAMS, SESS COMRADES!

New Year Greetings to All SESS Comrades!

As we embark on the year 2025, I trust this message finds you in good health and high spirits. Welcome to yet another academically thrilling semester! It is a joy to have you back after your brief December 2024 holiday.

I extend my best wishes as you tackle your ongoing end-of-semester examinations. Your dedication and commitment to academic excellence are truly commendable.

Here are a few tips to help you excel during the exam period:

- Review the examination timetable carefully and note down the dates, venues, and unit codes/titles for all your exams.
- Manage your time effectively.
- Maintain a consistent study routine and don't hesitate to seek help when needed.
- Uphold the highest standards of integrity in the examination rooms and throughout the exam period.
- Remember to take care of yourself—your well-being matters.

Important Reminder: Classes for the second semester will begin immediately after the examinations.

Thank you for your unwavering support and dedication. Wishing you a blessed semester filled with success, joy, and divine favour!

Warm regards,
